Declaration

I have read the Terms and Conditions supplied to me and understand the same. By submitting my entry, I agree to accept those terms.

Signed: _____

Date: _____

Open to amateur photographers and students only. Entries may be either in colour, or black and white, preferably A4 size (may be different shape but no bigger overall).

The festival theme for 2019 is LIFE IS NOT WHAT IT SEEMS and contestants can interpret that in any way they choose. Judges will be looking for originality and composition.

There will be a first cash prize of $500.

Entry Deadline – Sunday 1st September 2019

So that we can have the competition judged ahead of the festival and ready for display, please deliver your photos and entry form to the Katikati Information Centre or post them to NZ Mural Contest & Arts Festival, C/0 36 Main Road, Katikati, to arrive no later than Sunday 1st September 2019.

Please have your name and contact details on the back together with a brief caption.

Terms & Conditions

Originality

The entrant must be the original creator of the work entered. Entrants may use another agency in the realisation of the work. (For example, photographs processed by a laboratory are acceptable whereas photographs taken by another person are not.)

Copyright

Entrants must be the legal copyright owner of the work entered, and, where applicable have permission from the licensor to enter the material. Copyright in the work remains with the copyright holder and approval for entry and use in the competition or event is the responsibility of the entrant.

Reproduction Rights

Organisers will only reproduce prize-winning entries in newspapers, magazines, television and internet contexts that specifically advertise, promote, acknowledge or celebrate the event, for a period of two years from closing date for entries. Any other use will be negotiated with the copyright holder and agreed in writing.

Moral Rights Protection

The organisers acknowledge the moral rights provisions of the Copyright Act 1994, including the right to be identified as the author of the work and the right to object to derogatory treatment of the work. To preserve the artistic integrity of the entry, no work will be intentionally edited, altered, demeaned or misrepresented in any way. However, uncollected/non-returned work may be disposed of. The authorship of the entrant will be clearly acknowledged in each case of use.

Model and Property Releases

It is the entrant's responsibility to obtain appropriate written permission from people or owners of property that are identifiable in their work. The entrant must produce evidence of that consent, to the organisers, if requested.

Limit of Liability

The entrant fully indemnifies the organisers against any claims arising from the display or use of unaltered work as described herein and from the infringement of intellectual property rights of any third party.

Return of Work

Should you want your work returned, all entries must include suitable addressed packaging for the return of work. A courier ticket or postage to cover cost of delivery must be included with the entry form. All entries will be returned within 14 days of the close of the exhibition.

Alternatively, work may be collected in person from the Katikati Information Centre from Wednesday, October 9th. No work may be collected without identification and proof of ownership. Entries not returned or collected will be destroyed after December 1, 2019. Organisers undertake not to keep, sell, auction, give away or profit from uncollected work.

Insurance

All entries will be treated with care, but no responsibility will be accepted in the case of loss or damage. Insurance is the entrant's sole responsibility unless agreed in writing with the organiser.

Agreement

The signed entry form confirms the entrant's consent to these Terms and Conditions. Entries submitted without a signed entry form will not be accepted.
