

With 76 works of art throughout Katikati, we believe it makes our small town the biggest open air art gallery in New Zealand.

Katikati Open Air Art is now hosting its 7th biennial New Zealand Mural Contest and Arts Festival. The theme for the festival is “Life is not what it seems”.

One of the things that makes Katikati so special is the number of amazing artists that live up all our side roads and the wonderful galleries boasting local art.

This trail gives you the opportunity to visit some of our hidden treasures in the area.

Whether you choose one stop or all of them, you will have a great day out and enjoy every moment.

THERE ARE SOME STOPS ON THIS TRAIL THAT YOU WOULD NOT NORMALLY GET TO SEE,
BE SURE THAT YOU DON'T MISS OUT!

Ticket holders enter the properties of participating places at their own risk. Katikati Open Air Art will accept no liability for personal injury or damage caused to ticket holders or their property whilst participating on this trail.

Julia Blackler ‘Studio Juliart’

44 Uretara Drive, Katikati

A studio combined with Julia’s house in a cottage garden setting with a view of the Kaimais. Julia paints in different styles, floral, landscape, still life, figures and uses several mediums; pastel, oil, acrylic paint & inks and watercolours. Please park on road, not lane. Thank you.

Bob Drake

34B Park Road, Katikati

Bob returned to NZ after many years and continues his work here, showing locally and at NorthArt, Auckland. His abstract works can be seen throughout his home and studio-workshop. There is limited parking along the private driveway. Refreshments will be available at this stop with a gold coin donation to help cover costs.

Gallery on Mulgan

13 Mulgan Street, Katikati

Lorraine works from her garden studio, ‘Gallery on Mulgan’, which showcases her artwork and her husband Glenn’s woodturning. In Lorraine’s work you will see colour, expression, fun and sometimes elaborate detail. Glenn’s wood turning is clean and beautifully crafted, but he also has fun with novelty toys.

Athenree Heights Art Gallery

9 Island Vista, Athenree

There will be paintings by six artists including Colleen and Bill Tetley who own the gallery. Enjoy browsing the different styles of the artists some of whom have won many awards for their work. You can be sure of a warm welcome.

Arty Tarts

Cherry Court, Main Road, Katikati

This is a Co-Op shop where local artists and crafters can showcase their works. They have a large array of inexpensive, unique gift items and a wide range of possum merino clothing. Everything they sell is New Zealand made.

Katikati Art Group

Katikati Memorial Hall, Main Road, Katikati

The Katikati Art Group Gallery is located to the side of the Memorial Hall. Visitors are welcome most Monday, Wednesday, Thursday & Friday mornings. Tutorials/workshops are regularly provided. Artists gather in groups on each of the open days so visitors can peruse the artwork and meet the Artists. We are a diverse and enthusiastic group using many different mediums to achieve an eclectic range of artwork.

Anne Bailey

126 Stewart Road, Apata

Anne’s exquisite mixed-media pieces draw on her interest in New Zealand’s unique flora and fauna. She has studied botany, zoology and fine art. Each artwork is painstakingly hand cut and assembled in fabric and paper and the story behind each piece is carefully researched and retold. Anne’s other passion is gardening, and her studio is set in one acre of grounds that you are welcome to wander.

Sue McDougall

99 Plummer Road which is off Youngson Road

A purpose built studio, built by her husband where she makes natural soap, candles and costume jewellery. Sue enjoys colour so this shows in her work. Soap making demonstrations can be made by appointment and jewellery can be made to order. This is set in a country garden.

Jan Mclean Dolls

Forta Leza Country Inn, 2656 SH2, Katikati

Fantasy to Fashion. View the exhibition of over 100 dolls designed by NZ Artist 'Jan McLean', award winning doll maker. This is a private collection belonging to Mary Belcher.

Brian Barton

110 Main Road, Katikati (behind Husqvarna mowers)

Brian has a large shed and is an avid woodturner using all aspects of wood craft and a large variety of different timbers, which are on display in the showroom. He has the ability and flair to capture the true beauty of timber.

Waterford Gallery

Corner of Waterford Road and Hyde Street

Rioting reds, excitable pinks, violent blues, prestigious purples, delectable oranges and happiest yellows. The colours of today. Join them at Waterford Galley, a working studio with local artists Jules Faulkner and Lizzy Fisher.

Turama Ahi Pottery

15 Cannon Road, Katikati

Ross and Sandra are well established potters producing a variety of earthenware and stoneware products. They offer classes every Wednesdays between 10 and 1pm and sell clay, glazes and other pottery materials and also offer firings. You are very welcome to call in and have a coffee with them.

Yana Meech

412 Busby Road, Katikati

Yana is a self-taught artist preferring to work with acrylic as a medium on framed canvas. Her style ranges from contemporary landscape to abstract. She loves to paint the atmospheric, moody paintings inspired by the views from her Katikati rural home. www.yanameech.co.nz
